- 4.4. Survey Results - Karen Wong
Received 131 responses
Highlights - overall, looks good

Respect for and concern for maintaining our specially trained, highly skilled and hardworking teachers and well needed IA (teacher salaries controlled by district)

Like PTA events and programs

Spend more on English and Chinese Books

More field trips, special guest performances, assemblies

Homework club needs to be supervised by certified teacher

~63% don't use Mandarin much at home

Major concern for traffic

Suggestions for a tour for new school

Need community building

After school will be offered (ASEP and sports)

Concern to keep diversity and level of English, increase

Mandarin activities

Expressed value and appreciation of wonderful staff

Request for more updates

Challenges in learning with COVID

Non-Chinese speaking families at home need more support

Over usage of screens

Satisfied about CLIPPER Monthly

Improve Activity Clubs - loved idea but not aware

Satisfied with CLIPCO communication

Encourage Engagement - in person events, host social events, consider family situations, more parent volunteers

4.5. Ice Cream Social - Aug 17 4-5pm

Only go on campus, classrooms will not be open

4.6. First Day of School - Aug 18

Planning something

Aim to get together between Aug 1-17

Launch DGC after settling in a bit

Have a great summer!
